

From: amitoz saini
Sent: Thursday, November 25, 2010 11:54 AM
To: Kathleen Almond
Subject: requirements for nursing registrations

Respected Kathleen,

I think that requirements such as IELTS or OET for nurses (from non- english background), before registration , must be eliminated if their tertiary or secondary education is in English. I am saying this because if they have done their studies in english , it is obvious that they will be able to communicate with patient and their co-workers.

Thank you
Kind regards,
Amitoz